DATA ANALYTICS PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Developed a predictive model using Decision Trees, achieving 80% accuracy in forecasting cancer diagnoses based on patient health data, applying feature engineering and model evaluation techniques to improve predictive performance.
- Built a machine learning model utilizing K-Nearest Neighbors (KNN) to predict diamond carat sizes, achieving a 90% confidence level by leveraging data preprocessing, model tuning, and cross-validation.
- Engineered a fraud detection model with advanced machine learning algorithms, achieving 94% accuracy in identifying fraudulent transactions through anomaly detection and pattern recognition techniques.
